

Would you like to review one of our titles for textbook adoption?

If you serve on the teaching faculty of a college or university, the Professional Resource Press invites you to request an examination copy of any title you are considering adopting for a course. All requests must be submitted in writing on departmental letterhead, an AAP/NACS Desk Copy Request Form, or the form below. You must indicate your departmental address, course title, date of course, and expected enrollment. IMPORTANT: All examination copy requests must include the statement "I have read and accept your examination policy." Should you adopt this title for your class, your exam copy will serve as your desk copy. Thank you for your interest in our titles.
